Statue of General F. W. A. Von Steuben to Be Unveiled

Did you ever hear of General von Steuben? Search your memory well Did you ever hear of General von Steuben? Search your memory well and you may recall a faint recollection that such a man existed during the time that Yorktown was giving up the ghost. History has not been fair to General you Steuben, but after long years the famous German is to be honored by a statue that will be unveiled at Washington by President Taft during December. General you Steuben joined the forces of Washington at Valley Forge. Out of disorder and confusion the new arrival brought system. He had not a long military training in Germany, and he decided to join the American forces in their fight against the English. Steuben had had a master for a detcher in Frederick the Great. He used his knowledge and skill to such good example that he won the love and praise of General Washington. German Americans have united in crecting the monument to the famous general, and the subnamed to make the unveiling of the monument a fitting tribute to the planned to make the unveiling of the monument a fitting tribute to the

"The Cleaner Without a Fault", "The Ware That Wears", "The Smile That Wont Come.off" are good examples of well known advertising epigrams. December 15th—in time for your Xmas uses. We have consented to serve on the committee of awards.

Instead of paying some professional writer $500 to write an epigram for us we want to encourage the best thought of a larger number of people. Some bright man or woman, or boy or girl is going to write the atrongest epigram ever seen in an advertisement and we are withing to spend $2000 to get it.
